GUIDE
PRICE

An exceptionally well presented end-terrace house within walking distance of the village centre. The accommodation comprises, Kitchen, Sitting Room, two Bedrooms and Bathroom. There is designated parking to the property and a small garden at the rear of the property. The property benefits from gas central heating and double glazing and is particularly energy efficient. The property would be a perfect starter home or second home.

Rothbury

Known as the 'Capital of Coquetdale' Rothbury is a small Northumbrian market town on the River Coquet equidistant from the larger towns of Alnwick and Morpeth. The town still reflects prosperity of the late Victorian era, brought about then by the arrival of the railway, (now gone), and the influence of Lord Armstrong and Cragside. Facilities include First and Middle Schools, a library, art centre, a number of public houses/restaurants, golf club, professional and medical services/community hospital and a full range of local shops. A recently opened Shell petrol forecourt in Thropton is but a mile away.
