€235,000

We are presenting a unique opportunity to acquire a grand country house for reform at a great price. For those who are looking to reform a traditional cortijo with its thick walls, impressive wooden beams, fireplaces and plenty of other original features this would be a perfect choice. The property consists of the main house, outbuildings located around walled courtyard and 10000 m2 of land. The property sits amongst picturesque wheat fields, olive groves and far reaching 360 views of green hilltops. There are mature trees on the property to shade the house in the hot summer months. Despite the property's tranquil rural location it takes only 10 minutes to reach the centre of Caudete with all its amenities and entertainment. The access road is comfortable via a well maintained asphalted country road. Over two floors, the cortijo currently has 5 bedrooms, bathroom, large salon
