Almost all books relating to the village of West Moors will have photographs of the Gatemans Cottage, a former signalman's cottage for railway workers. The property used to sit alongside the long gone Castleman Railway line but now occupies a prominent position in the heart of the Village Centre with shops & services close to hand. This 3-bedroom character house has been modernised throughout and offers charming accommodation. Outside the property has good 'off-road' parking & a mature garden which enjoys a sunny aspect.
