With an internal footprint of 50.6 square metres (545 sq ft), this home is thoughtfully laid out for modern city living. The design balances warm wood tones with sleek contemporary finishes, creating an inviting and elegant atmosphere throughout.

The open-plan living and kitchen area benefits from natural light via large sliding doors, which open onto a private decked balcony—perfect for sunset views and outdoor lounging. The kitchen is fitted with integrated Samsung appliances, framed by a refined palette of grey and walnut cabinetry and set against soft white worktops. There is ample room for both dining and entertaining.

The bedroom is impressively proportioned (5.2m long), easily accommodating a king-size bed and storage, and is finished in calming neutral hues with coordinating dark trims. The bathroom is stylish and functional, featuring clean white tiling, a full-sized bath with shower, wall-mounted sanitary ware, and
