

4 Bank Street, Tonbridge TN9 1BL

Description

Offered for sale is this immaculately presented and unique three storey property located in the heart of Tonbridge. Set just moments from the High Street and within easy walking distance of all local amenities, this charming period freehold building oozes style and character throughout.

Upon entering the property, you're greeted by two distinct living areas, giving a seamless flow from the kitchen to the cosy lounge. The first floor consists of a main bedroom as well as space that can be used as a separate study area. There is a good sized second bedroom and a bathroom on the top floor.

Outside, there is the bonus of an allocated space to the rear of the building. As well as the tasteful decor throughout, one of the property's great features is its grand staircases and built-in shelving, which helps to beautifully divide the accommodation.

This property is the perfect first-time purchase for someone looking to own their own freehold house and be perfectly located for a night out in Tonbridge town centre.
