Burwell is situated in pleasant countryside approximately eleven miles north east of the university city of Cambridge and some four and a half miles from the horse racing town of Newmarket. The village contains an interesting variety of properties ranging from period cottages to modern family houses and there is an excellent range of facilities including a primary school, doctors' surgery, dentist, various shops catering for everyday requirements, Anglican and non conformist churches, post office, public houses and a regular bus service. Burwell is particularly well located with good access to the A14 dual carriageway which interconnects with many of the regions traffic routes, principally the M11 motorway to London and the A11 to the east, Cambridge North. There is a regular train service from Newmarket to Cambridge into London's Liverpool Street and King's Cross Stations.

This beautifully presented two-bedroom detached bungalow offers a modern and airy living space. Situated in a central cul-de-sac surrounded by similar properties, it boasts a convenient location close to excellent local amenities.
