Location

Surrounded by open countryside, West Pennard is an attractive village with plenty of history and one which has an active community with the village hall at the centre of village life. The bordering picturesque location provides the backdrop for a variety of outdoor pursuits. The village sits in a convenient location neighbouring a number of charming towns and villages with the bustling market town of Street within an easy 10-minute reach. World famous Glastonbury is just 4 miles away whilst the cities of Bath and Bristol are easily accessed via the A37.

Close too is the wonderful town of Castle Cary with its mainline train service into London in under an hour and a half. West Pennard is well connected for some of the nation's most prestigious schools; Millfield, Hazelgrove, Bruton, Kings and Sherborne, to name but a few, are all within close proximity. The village itself boasts a charming primary school with small class sizes and lovely outdoor space, close to the village church.

Nestled within beautifully landscaped grounds, this property boasts an array of stunning outdoor features that enhance its charm and appeal. At the rear, an expansive stone terrace extends along the length of the house, seamlessly blending into the manicured lawns that stretch toward the boundary, creating a sense of open space and tranquillity. For those with a green thumb, a poly tunnel and raised beds offer the perfect opportunity for cultivating your own home grown vegetables. The front of the house commands magnificent views of Glastonbury Tor, providing a breathtaking backdrop for sunsets, making the garden an exceptional place to unwind and enjoy the outdoors. Mature laurel hedging ensures privacy and creates a natural screen from the road.

The property also includes a double garage, beautifully clad in pine, with an additional storage room and wood store. Adjacent to the garage, a secluded seating area is ideal for alfresco dining. Two additional sheds are found on the grounds: one is currently set up as a workshop with a cosy wood-burning stove, while the other provides extra storage.
