The Property

Situated on a level walk to the town centre, this beautifully presented Victorian semi-detached home offers plenty of original features throughout as well as high ceilings and modern double-glazed sash windows giving plenty of natural light to each room. Greeted by a tiled floor, original sash windows and stained-glass in the porch, the ground floor flows through to the spacious living room which has a bay window and log burner. There is a separate dining room with flexible use and a useful shower room just across the hall. The kitchen has good storage and space for a small breakfast table and leads on to a utility room at the rear. Upstairs the split landing offers enough room to house a desk and gives access to three double bedrooms and main bathroom.

Location

The market town of Tavistock provides good shopping amenities and schools along with riverside park, leisure centre and theatre all based around the beautiful countryside of Dartmoor National Park. Ideally located with easy access to the nearby maritime city of Plymouth which offers an excellent retail and commerce centre as well as road, rail and ferry links.
