Fine and Country West Wales are delighted to offer the spacious and very well presented Landsker House in Penally onto the open market.

This large home is situated in an idyllic location in Penally overlooking the village green and with superb views of the historic Church. To the rear of the property, there are wonderful, easy to maintain gardens with an extensive patio with expansive views over Tenby Golf Course and the sea beyond.

Internally the property offers sizeable and flexible accommodation which the present owners have spent a significant amount of money investing into making the property luxurious with wonderful bathrooms, kitchen, double glazing bifold doors and other excellent improvements.

This property offers an opportunity to live as a large family with a nod towards multi-generational familial living or potentially as a business opportunity with a superb second / investment home in this wonderful area.

Properties of this size and importance are rarely available in such a wonderful location and Fine and Country West Wales urges clients to not miss out on this rare opportunity to live by the sea in a wonderful location.
