If you can't manage steps this home may not be suitable but because of them the outside space is both quirky and beautifully arranged. A great deal of thought and effort has been spent creating spaces that are now easier to maintain and highlight some stunning features. If you love your garden and outside space Baytrees has you covered. Approached from Pit Hill Lane there is a pull in providing parking and gate opening onto a sloped drive and parking area. The front garden enjoys an excellent degree of privacy and is a sun trap, mainly walled with a mature baytree hedge marking the boundary to the front. During renovations the flagstone floor of the originally sited village blacksmith was unearthed and now forms a delightful seating area. There are two ponds and lawn edged with sleeper retained borders generously stocked spring bulbs and perennials. A side gate and path bring you to the rear of the property where a walled gravel courtyard planted with ferns offers welcome shade on those hot summer days. An area behind the garage houses the oil tank and steep steps flanked by well stocked borders rise and open on to the rear garden, again enjoying an excellent degree of privacy and comprising three tiers, two of which are lawned and each retained by sleepers with a gravel path leading up through to the foot of the garden where there is a vegetable plot and shed. A neighbouring red brick built barn provides a stunning back drop boundary wall where a pergola with grape vine makes the most of its sunny position. There are a variety of trees including an Apple, two Walnut, Japanese Maple and Cherry Plum. Once you've walked your way up through the garden, turn around and you are rewarded by stunning far reaching views over the roof tops.
