About the property

Located between the bustling town of Newport and the historic village of Carisbrooke, this elegant semi-detached Victorian property boasts timeless character and modern practicality. With period features such as high ceilings and feature fireplaces, this home offers an inviting and sophisticated atmosphere perfect for family living.

The ground floor features a grand entrance hallway leading to two reception rooms, both adorned with feature fireplaces, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. The large kitchen and dining area provide a spacious hub for family meals, while a separate downstairs WC adds convenience. The thoughtful layout seamlessly blends traditional charm with everyday functionality.

Upstairs, the property offers three generously sized double bedrooms, each filled with natural light. The family bathroom serves all bedrooms, creating a comfortable and practical living space. Every room reflects the home's Victorian heritage while offering versatility to suit modern family needs.

Outside, a large walled rear garden provides a private retreat, perfect for children, pets, and outdoor gatherings. The home is ideally positioned close to good schools, countryside walks, including the Tennyson Trail and Carisbrooke Castle, and within easy reach of both Newport town centre and Carisbrooke High Street, making it a perfect setting for a growing family.
